Latest OCLC Report

- From Awareness to Funding
  - A Study of Library Support in America
- Findings
  - Library funding just barely related to visits
  - Perception of the library is an important predictor of funding support
  - Voters who see the library as a “transformational” force, instead of just an “informational” source are more likely to vote for tax increases
- Targeting marketing messages to the right voter segments is key for increased support

Rethinking Resource Sharing

Printing Updates

- Book Straps and Stickers

The screenshot shows a web interface for a library system. At the top, there are navigation tabs: Home, Databases, and Resource Sharing. To the right, there are links for My Account, Options, Policies Directory, and Exit. Below these are buttons for Request Manager, Blank Workform, Printing, Batch, and My Requests. A search bar labeled 'Go to page' is also present. In the center, there are icons for Admin Link, LHR Update, Print, and Help. The status 'PENDING - Lender' is displayed on the right. The main content area has a radio button for 'In Process' and a selected radio button for 'Yes'. Under 'Yes', there is a dropdown menu set to 'DEFAULT', a checkbox for 'Print Shipping Labels' which is unchecked, and a checked checkbox for 'Print Book Straps'. Below this, it says 'Affiliations: ILLD, WCSU'. There are also options for 'No' (Reason For No), 'Conditional' (Lending Notes), and 'Future Date' (YYYYMMDD format).

A screenshot of the WorldCat search interface. At the top, a yellow banner with a red border contains the message: "No results match your search for 'de vanci cide'. Did you mean de vinci code? Having trouble? Help us improve our search and let us know what you're trying to find." Below this is a navigation bar with four buttons: "Search" (highlighted), "Library Items", "Lists", and "Contacts". The main search area is titled "Search for an item in libraries near you:" and contains the prompt "Enter a title, subject or author:" followed by a text input field containing "de vanci cide". At the bottom right of the search area are two buttons: "Search" and "Advanced Search".
